

VJEKOSLAV DOMLIJAN

1. Education

- PhD, Economics, University of Belgrade, Belgrade, Serbia
- MBA, University of Belgrade, Belgrade, Serbia
- BA, Economics, University of Mostar, Mostar, Bosnia and Herzegovina

2. Key positions (industry)

- London School of Economics; Co-director, Deputy Team Leader; Strategic Advisor; DFID funded project "Support to Pro-Poor Policy in BiH"
- Ministry of Foreign Affairs of BiH; Ambassador of BiH to Canada and Cuba
- Development Bank of FBiH; Executive Director and Chief Economist
- Securities Commission of FBiH, Sarajevo; Member of Commission
- University of Sarajevo; Faculty of Economics; Associate Professor
- Government of Federation of BiH; Strategic Advisor to Deputy Prime Minister

3. Publications

- Domljan, V. (2012) Is the New Beginning of the Paralysed Society Possible? In V. Džihic and D. Hamilton (eds.), Unfinished Business – the Western Balkans and the International Community. Washington, DC: Brookings Institutions Press.
- Domljan, V. (2011) Neretva Valley Development Corridor – Model of Creating Export Forces on Regional Basis. Sarajevo: Akademija nauka i umjetnosti BiH, Proceedings of the International Scientific Conference „Regional Cooperation in Europe: Opportunity for the Balkans organised by ANUBiH, HAZU, LSE and University of Bologna, 21-23 September, 2011, Dubrovnik.
- Domljan, I. and V. Domljan (2011) Efficiency Assessment of Bosnia and Herzegovina's Water Sector Companies, Six International Conference on Construction in the 21st Century (CITC-VI) "Construction Challenges in the New Decade", July 5-7, Kuala Lumpur, Malaysia.
- Domljan I. and V. Domljan (2010) The Way for PPPs in water infrastructural projects in BiH, 10th International scientific conference VSU 2010, Sofia.
- Domljan, V. (2006) "Crowding Out the Unobserved Economy in Western Balkans". In D. Kostovicova and V. Bojicic-Dzelilovic (Eds.). "Austrian Presidency of the EU: Regional Approaches to the Balkans". Vienna: the Centre for the Study of Global Governance (London School of Economics and Political Science).
- Domljan, V. (ed.), J. K. Ingram, K. Fogarty, P. Nicholl, D. Wilson and R. Esangga (2002) Finance and Development in Bosnia and Herzegovina. Sarajevo: Forum1/1 Student Initiative (with the support of USAID Corporate Governance and Business Investment Project).

4. Membership in international associations / collaborations

- Member of LSEE - Research on South Eastern Europe
- Member of the Permanent Study Group of European Centre for Peace and Development (attached to University for Peace, UN)

5. Research interests

- Development Finance
- Economic Development