

1. Education

- MA English, Purdue University, IN, USA
- Diploma in American Studies, Smith College, MA, USA
- BA English Language and Literature, University of Sarajevo

2. Key positions (industry)

- Interpreter, Bosnian to English/English to Bosnian, European Bank for Reconstruction and Development
- Translator, English to Bosnian, translated parts of Professor Nedim Filipovic's book on risk management for his post-graduate lectures at the Faculty of Economics, University of Sarajevo
- Translator, Bosnian to English, translated for the Dean of the Faculty of Economics, University of Sarajevo, translated the Law of Property Rights Relations, the Law of Obligations and parts of the Law on Notaries and Law on Leasing.
- Interpreter, Bosnian to English/English to Bosnian, SweRoad at the Road Directorate of the Federation of Bosnia and Herzegovina

3. Teaching

- Lecturer, Undergraduate Academic Writing courses: L221E- Essay I, L222E- Essay II, PS190- Writing for the Social Sciences, SSST University
- Teaching assistant, English 106- Introductory Composition, Purdue University

4. Publications

5. Membership in international associations / collaborations

6. Research interests

- Academic writing
- Contemporary American and British fiction
- Literary theory
- Translation studies