

English language requirements

In order to follow courses and coursework at SSST students must have adequate knowledge of English. The English entrance test, with a pass mark of 61%, is a requirement for all applicants.

Those who achieve a borderline mark will be given links to language exercises to be done before coming to SSST, and will also be given an extra hour of supervision in the first year.

The entrance exam is in four parts:

PART I Grammar - 40 points

All verb tenses and forms, including questions and negative statements.
Adjectives, comparatives and superlatives
Prepositions
Pronouns

PART II Reading comprehension - 20 points

A passage (about a page long), followed by about 15 questions.

PART III Essay - 20 points

Students are asked to choose between two essay questions. The questions are specific to the faculty you are applying for.

PART IV Oral exam - 20 points

You will be interviewed for 10-15 minutes by a member of the English Faculty.
